Dear Administrators and Teachers:

Each year, the Oklahoma Educational Publishers Association (OEPA) sponsors a caravan for newly adopted educational materials. Publishers travel to various sites to present their materials approved by the State Textbook Committee. We urge all local school district committee members and teachers to attend. This caravan allows educators to view most adopted materials all in one day. If your school district evaluation options include attending this caravan, please release your staff to participate.

This year we have scheduled ten (10) days, with two (2) of these days in the Tulsa area and two (2) days in Oklahoma City. We will be presenting “CORE” ELA-BASAL READING/GRAMMAR GRADES PK-5 and “SUPPLEMENTAL” ELA PROGRAMS GRADES PK-5 will be on display during breaks. You do not need to make a reservation or pre-register to attend this caravan.

Enclosed is the Caravan Site Schedule. You may also access this schedule on www.okedpublishers.com. Please share this information with all your schools' personnel.

There will be a follow-up virtual caravan available after the completion of the regular caravan. More details will be forthcoming in an email to your Superintendents and Principals. We will also post this schedule on www.okedpublishers.com.

If you have specific questions regarding this caravan, you may contact either Thompson School Book Depository or Archway.

Respectfully,

OKLAHOMA EDUCATIONAL PUBLISHERS ASSOCIATION (OEPA)
